WELL & PUMP SERVICE SINCE 1952   Lic. #496765

Serving Southern California and Central Coast

About Us: General Pump Company Inc. is the Number one leading provider of water well needs throughout Southern California with more annual contracts throughout the Cities and municipalities than all of our competitors combined. We offer a great stability to all our employees because the need for water will never go away. We are growing to supply the needs of our customers. Our company's stability and growth since 1953 is a testament of supplying the water needs to the people of California and the commitment to all of our employees. Benefits include 401K, Medical, Dental, Paid holidays, Paid Vacations, and Paid sick leave.

Job
Description Field Technician

Applicants must have mechanical abilities, and be able to work in various weather conditions. Applicants must know and be familiar with the various tools used in the industry such as wrench sizes, pipe wrench sizes, and socket sizes. Applicants must know how to tie down and secure loads for transport. Applicants must have physical endurance which is required at times by swinging 8 lb. sledge hammers, chain tongs, and other field functions. Applicants must have steel toed boots. Applicants must follow all of General Pump Companies safety procedures and lock out tag out procedures. Applicants must wear all proper PPE required for various job functions. Applicants must have their Class B driver's license or be willing to attain one within a timely manner.

Other Desired Skills:

- Welding
- Electrical wiring motors
- Water pumps, and pumping systems experience
- Mechanical Journeyman
- Class A or B Drivers License
- Trouble shooting skills
- Team Player, self managed
- Safety Advocate

Contact Info:

Ron Miller Hiring Coordinator 909-599-9606 ext. 230
rmiller@genpump.com
HR@genpump.com